

JOB POSTING: Start-up Law Firm Seeking Partner

JOB TITLE & CODE: Partner

SUMMARY: Downtown Manhattan based multi-jurisdictional start-up law firm with two partners is considering serious candidates for third partner to establish presence in New York and other major markets.

QUALIFICATIONS: Successful candidates must have a J.D. from an ABA accredited law school, stellar academic credentials (top 25%), with law review or law journal and moot court experience. Candidates must be licensed to practice law in at least one U.S. jurisdiction, with licensure in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, California, and/or Florida preferred. Prior experience must include 3+ years of large law firm or in-house work and/or demonstrable experience starting, managing, or operating a financially sound and sustainable organization.

Apart from having analytical and communication skills, the ideal candidate will have sound business judgment, a professional demeanor and attitude, as well as strong client service focus and the ability to work efficiently and proactively, prioritize workflow, meet demanding deadlines, and manage multi-dimensional projects in a fast-paced environment. They must be self-starters who can work well with colleagues yet also maturely and professionally with minimal supervision.

Please note this is a rare opportunity to start as partner. Firm development including business generation and client rainmaking is an integral part of this position, and candidates must be willing and able to do this as required by the needs of the law firm. Thus, candidates with strong business acumen and entrepreneurial spirit are encouraged to apply.

APPLY: Apply via e-mail to msr@nylawyernow.com. Please include your resume, transcript, and cover letter detailing the following:

- A. Your general abilities and experiences, including specializations (if any);
- B. Your vision for how you would create, operate, and sustain a successful law firm; and
- C. Three law firm websites you wish to use as samples to indicate how you would like your firm to look five to ten years from now, along with a brief explanation of what inspires you about their website and law practice.
