If you apply for a nonimmigrant visa but are not able to demonstrate intent to return to a residence abroad after a defined visit to the United States, the officer will refuse your application as required by law. Ukrainians should not attempt to apply for non-immigrant visas in order to travel to the United States as refugees. All inquiries about refugee status and assistance should be directed to the nearest office of the UN High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) or the International Organization for Migration (IOM). Demand for nonimmigrant visa appointments at U.S. Embassy Poland is extraordinarily high. We are currently prioritizing immediate relatives (spouses and minor children) of U.S. citizens and Lawful Permanent Residents as well as cases with unique humanitarian circumstances. While we respond to inquiries as quickly as we

Visa information for Ukrainians who have evacuated to Romania

U.S. CITIZENS

If you are a U.S. citizen in Ukraine, you should complete an online assistance form here: Crisis Intake \(state.gov\).

U.S. citizens in Ukraine in need of assistance should contact the Department of State by:

calling +1 606 260 4379 (outside the U.S.) or +1 833 741 2777 (from the U.S.); or emailing KyivACS@state.gov NONIMMIGRANT VISAS

Note that the U.S. Embassy in Bucharest can provide visa services only to persons who are physically located in Romania.

Due to current local conditions, we are currently only able to accept emergency appointments for essential travel. Essential travel is considered work in support of critical infrastructure in the United States, or a life-or-death health emergency.
